

Changing Places

GUIDING CLIENTS THROUGH LIFE'S TRANSITIONS

When Bay Area residents are facing a complex moving project, Changing Places is the premier relocation company for orchestrating, managing and coordinating the process.

Margaret Fearey Walsh founded Changing Places in 1993. Understanding how complicated a relocation process can be, she knows our clients want to create a stress-free and seamless move.

As VP and GM, Katie Carr leads our team of 30 relocation professionals including interior designers, architects, stagers and expert home designers who have moved clients to and from 18 countries, bringing peace-of-mind to over 2,500 homes.

Based in San Rafael, Changing Places was honored to win its 10th "Best Home Organizer" award from 2020 Pacific Sun readers.

When you work with Changing Places to handle your complex relocation, you will have the peace-of-mind you deserve, knowing that we will overlook no aspect and we will handle the most private details of your move with integrity and compassion.
