

Cheers to 30 Years!

It has been an honor and pleasure to spend the last three decades orchestrating simple to complicated moves anywhere life takes you.

From our humble beginnings in 1993 with a crew of one, to our current team of 30+ experienced professionals including interior designers, architects, stagers, expert home organizers, and relocation managers, Changing Places are pioneers of moving, organizing, and design white-glove concierge service.

Watch our Founder, Margaret Walsh, and Vice President, Katie Carr, share memories of our journey in the video above.

WHAT OUR CLIENTS SAY

“

Honestly, I don't know what I would have done (or would do) without you.

Judy Keyes
San Francisco, CA

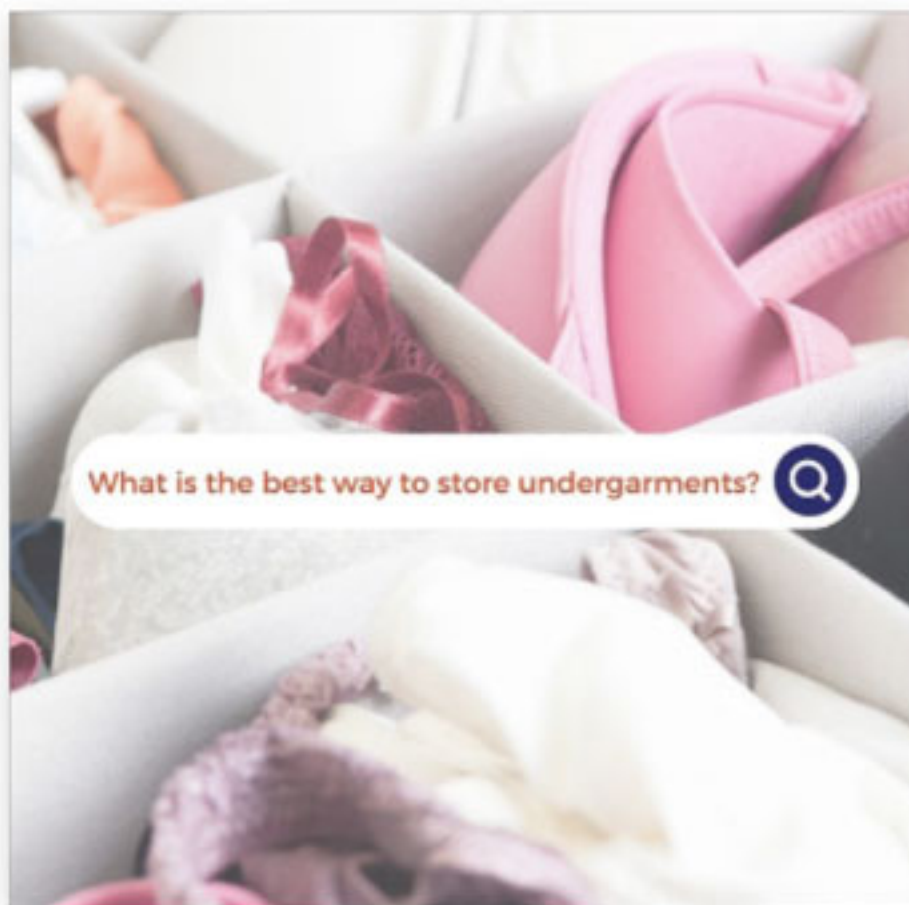

“

Over the years, Changing Places has moved my family in and out of several residences, and every single one of these moves could not have been run more smoothly. I enthusiastically recommend Changing Places for any local, national or international moving need that you might have.
