

Service Spotlight: Estate Resolution

When it comes time to resolve the estate of a loved one, many overwhelmed heirs and family members don't know where to start.

This is where Changing Places comes in.

We will ensure the thoughtful and discreet disposition of heirlooms, art, and other treasured possessions to family, auction, donation, and consignment.

Our team is thorough, patient, and extra sensitive in the most delicate of situations. Just as important, we've handled hundreds of estate projects in our 29 years in business.

without the help of partners like:

Make It Home

Make It Home of San Rafael solves multiple problems at once by partnering with local Bay Area social service agencies to furnish the homes of families and young adults who are experiencing furniture poverty as they transition out of crisis.

Their team of volunteers helps receive, sort, repair, refurbish, and then disperse gently used furniture and essential home items to those in need.

WHAT OUR CLIENTS SAY

Changing Places changed our game plan! We were completely overwhelmed by my mom's home after she passed, and had no idea where to begin. We turned to the CP team and with their thoughtful advice, incredible organizational skills, professional reporting, and most of all, their kindness and understanding, we were able to empty her house in just a few weeks. It would have taken us months -- if not years!

One of the things we appreciated the most, was their dedication and commitment to donating everything we chose to give away, making sure as much as possible stayed out of the landfill. This was very important to us. All the third-party vendors they pulled into the project were also top-notch. This is just one example of their detailed and invaluable process.

Obviously, I am a fan! I am forever grateful to the CP team and would highly recommend their services.
